JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

From the Baltimore Sun, July 25th.

MARTIAL LAW IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Chief Justice Pearson gave his decision on Saturday in the habeas corpus cases growing out of the arrests made by Colonel Kirk, acting under orders issued by Governor Holden. The Chief Justice decided that the writ was not suspended and must be obeyed, and ordered it to issue in the cases of Adolphus G. Moore, one of the petitioners, and eighteen others, directed to the marshal of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, who is ordered to bring the bodies of the persons named before the chief justice, wherever found. According to the meagre statement given of Judge Pearson's opinion in the telegraphic dispatch, while declaring that the writ had not been suspended, he at the same time justified Kirk's refusal to obey it, upon the ground that he was acting under the orders of his superior, the Governor.

If the writ is not suspended, and the Governor had no power to suspend it, or to authorize its suspension by Kirk, it is difficult to see what justification the latter can find in the illegal orders of his superior. Can the Chief Justice mean that if Governor Holden were to order Kirk to commit murder, the order would be his justification? There was a time in this country when the liberty of a citizen was considered as sacred as his life, and the violation of the one scarcely less heinous than the unlawful taking of the other. We can hardly conceive that so eminent a jurist as Judge Pearson has promulgated a doctrine at variance with the decisions of the highest courts both of this country and of England, and with every principle of constitutional liberty. Only under an absolute despotism can the orders of the superior be pleaded in justification of any crime the inferior may commit. The next thing to be seen is whether the writ will be obeyed. The return made by the marshal to whom the writs are addressed will be looked to with interest.

In the meantime, some clue to the probable course of events may be had from the following paragraph which appeared in yesterday's (Sunday) Washington Chronicle, and the dispatch given from Governor Holden to the editor of that paper. It will be seen that Holden claims Judge Pearson's decision as a substantial victory, and the Chronicle considers that the Governor, backed "by the President of the United States and the Chief Justice of his own State, has command of the position." The paragraph is as follows:

"NORTH CAROLINA.—The following dispatch explains itself. Governor Holden has command of the position in North Carolina, and is now sustained by the President of the United States and by the Chief Justice of his own State:

"Raleigh, N. C., July 23, 1870.—To John W. Forney, editor of the Chronicle: Habeas corpus case just decided. Chief Justice Pearson substantially sustains the State government and refuses to interfere.

W. W. HOLDEN.
"Chairman State Republican Ex. Com."

A JUDICIAL DOGBERRY.

We have read the opinion of Chief Justice Pearson, of North Carolina, in the habeas corpus cases which have been brought before him as a consequence of Holden's high-handed measures. It is easy to see that the Judge is one of Holden's sympathizers. He excuses Holden, excuses Kirk, who is Holden's tool, and then excuses himself for excusing them. Nevertheless, with a great show of independence, he decides that whilst Governor Holden is the sole judge as to whether the counties declared by him to be in insurrection are in that condition, the Governor has no power to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. Naturally, the reader will suppose that such being the law, Kirk was fined and imprisoned for refusing to obey Judge Pearson's writ. But not so. The Judge says Kirk was equally bound to obey both his and Holden's orders, and as he elected to obey Holden's, Kirk is excusable! Next the reader will infer that he ordered out the posse comitatus to enforce his writ. Not at all. He says the posse comitatus and the militia are one and the same thing—that the only posse comitatus which he has the power to call out in these cases is that of the very counties which Holden declares to be in insurrection, and that it would never do to summon a posse of such men, all of whom are already, as militiamen, under the orders of the Governor, if they would only obey these orders! Finally, he concludes as follows:

"The writ will be directed to the marshal of the Supreme Court, with instructions to exhibit it and a copy of this opinion to his Excellency the Governor. If he orders the petitioner to be delivered to the marshal, well; if not, following the example of Chief Justice Taney, in Merriman's case (Annual Cyclopedia for the year 1861, page 555,) I have discharged my duty, the power of the judiciary is exhausted, and the responsibility must rest on the Executive."

See, now, Dogberry's instructions to his watch:

"Dogberry: You shall comprehend all vagrom men. You are to bid any man stand in the prince's name.

"Second Watch: How if we will not stand?

"Dogberry: Why, then, take no note of him, but let him go; and presently call the rest of the watch together, and thank God you are rid of a knave."—Rich. Dispatch.

Don Piatt on the colored cadet: "If he remains West Point will be so tarnished that who can hope for a reform. If he resigns on the contrary, the country will be convulsed. Henry Wilson will stand on his head, which will not at all affect his intellect. Senator Charles will curse and swear, and that will not damage his morals. Bingham will invoke "the gathered wisdom of a thousand years," and speak his speech for the hundredth time with more emphasis than ever; and in the end the little school will be tipped into the Hudson, and this infernal nonsense of making an officer, instead of creating an army, will end forever."

An old hotel keeper in Washington, once posted on his dining room door the following notice: "Members of Congress will go to the table first, and then the gentlemen. Rowdies and blackguards must not mix with the Congressmen, as it is hard to tell one from the other."

THE CRIMES OF HOLDEN'S ADMINISTRATION.

The crimes of Holden's administration have no parallel in the history of civilization. We defy any one to cite a parallel. It can't be done. When he went into power the people had just emerged from a disastrous and desolating war; there was comparatively no money in the Treasury to steal and misapply. What did he and his supporters do? They at once pretended to the people that they were the friends of internal improvements, projected numberless schemes, and although the people could hardly live comfortably, owing to the misfortunes of the war, these fellows increased the State debt at once, by the enormous sum of $26,000,000, making it over $40,000,000. The Supreme Court held that about $10,000,000 of this new debt was unconstitutional and void. The remaining $16,000,000 of bonds were at once thrown upon the markets of the country and at once the credit of the State went down to nothing, and for the whole $16,000,000, less than $1,000,000 has gone and will go into the public works. A large part of the sum realized for these bonds was used to bribe and corrupt the Legislature and other officials, and a larger sum passed into the hands of "carpet baggers" and degenerate natives of this State. They turned round then and repudiated all these bonds by act of the Legislature. This statement is true to the letter and the records of the State prove it so.

Last year more than a half a million of dollars were levied from the people, and more than half of this sum was collected to pay the interest on the $16,000,000 bonds. This money was wasted—paying high salaries and $7 a day to the most ignorant and profligate set of men, as a whole, that ever disgraced any capital in this world. Then they took the "Special tax" money and wasted and stole that; then they sold the State's Stock in the Wilmington & Weldon, and Wilmington & Manchester Railroad Company and squandered that in like manner; then the State got for her Dividend from the North Carolina Railroad Company $180,000 of the first mortgage bonds of the Company, and they took these bonds and sold them at 65 cents in the dollar to a favorite, when they were worth 90 cents in the dollar, and they used this money. The other day this same company declared another dividend and they have taken that and with it, without any authority of law, whatever, they have organized an army of desperate men, to make war upon the people and force them to keep this set of robbers in office. They have squandered the school fund until there is no school fund; they have sold the "Swamp lands" for $50,000, when they were worth from $300,000 to $500,000, they have made open war on the people; they have arrested many of the most peaceable and quiet citizens of the State without any warrant or lawful authority, and held them as prisoners; they have defied and refused to obey the writ of habeas corpus, and insulted the Judges of the State—they have perpetrated all these and other crimes more than we can enumerate. This is not empty declamation, it is true to the letter and they know it as well as we. And what is remarkable, the office holders sustain and support each other almost to a man. With all these crimes and on rages, open and manifest to every body, confessed even by the perpetrators themselves, not a single man of them has lifted his voice in condemnation of them, not one; on the contrary, they co-operate in the attempt to force the people to keep them in place. They know that if honest men were in power they would hurl the last one of them from power and place; this is what they fear, and hence the reckless desperate war of murder they are making on the people. We tell the people, black and white of all parties, that the only remedy is to go to the ballot box and vote for men good and true, pledged to drive the rascals out of the temple and into outer darkness. Let the people, every man, be up and doing for himself and little ones and his country; the country demands his honest effort, and let no one withhold it. Now is the day to do the peaceful work of consigning these detestable blasts of the peace and prosperity of the land to merited infamy and obscurity.

PREPARE FOR GREAT DEVELOPMENTS.

Gov. Holden had a horse thief and murderer, one Daniel A. Graham, brought to Raleigh to testify that the Clerk of the Superior Court of Moore county, and some twenty other gentlemen, had been guilty of murder, arson and other crimes. Though he still has this recorded evidence of Graham in his possession, no arrests have been made on it.

Some three weeks ago, on Saturday and Sunday, the houses of twelve peaceable citizens in three different counties, were visited by soldiers, arrests made and nine respectable citizens put in the common jail by a carpet bag officer, before giving them a hearing. After the rascal had thus punished them, he turned eight of them loose without binding over to Court, even.

Mr. James E. Boyd, of Alamance, is here; the Radicals say he is going to turn State's evidence and make wonderful disclosures. If he does, he can hurt none but members of a secret society; he can't hurt the Conservative Democratic party to which we belong. We believe in no secret societies; they are a curse to any country, and the people of North Carolina are feeling this curse to-day.

The present disgraceful broil and sham war now going on in the State, is between Holden, the head centre of the leagues, and some other secret organization originated no doubt in opposition to the leagues, into which quarrel and turmoil, innocent and respectable law-abiding citizens are dragged and made to suffer.

Let them fight, burn and hang on, if they will, but we expect, by the help of God, the majesty of the law and constitution, and the moral power of truth inherent in the great mass of the people, to put down both these secret organizations, so inimical and dangerous to liberty, peace and safety.

Some four months ago Holden's detectives gave him a list of names in Alamance, said to belong to the Ku Klux. Why has he not proceeded to arrest them until the eve of the election?

He has bought all the horses of one of our Livery stables here that he could get, and it is said he has sent an order to Baltimore for one hundred more. These horses are to be used to ride over the country next week, to make arrests on the evidence of such men as Daniel A. Graham, Toulou and Parrott.

Joe says "Dad" has not yet made up his mind to arrest us. We tell "Dad" he dare not arrest us. We are an American citizen, loyal and obedient to the laws, and we defy "Dad," Kirk and the devil.

The devil incarnate who signed the ordinance of secession and called for the head of Abe Lincoln before Booth took it off, cannot and shall not threaten through his son, our arrest and hanging in the jail yard, without our throwing back defiance in his teeth.

This wicked rascal who, through his Railroad Presidents, has wronged, robbed, despoiled and plundered the people, shall be told of it. Grant and his grand army of the Potomac can't silence us nor shut the complaining mouths of the hundred thousand tax payers of the State who are groaning under the burden, oppression and insult that has been heaped upon them.

ONLY ONE WEEK.

It is but just one week to the day of election. During that week there is much to be done by the Conservatives and Democrats to secure the election of honest men to office and redeem the State from the oppression and misrule under which it groans.

We have been forced to try the Radicals for two years, and we have seen and felt the result. The old saying of "bad times and worse a-coming" expresses precisely the facts of the situation under Radical rule. We know the people, those who have to bear the burdens of taxation, intend to make a change.

It is a week in which every man must do his whole duty. We must arouse our own friends to action in registering and voting, and at the same time watch and checkmate the underhanded movements of our opponents.

There is to be a mine sprung just a day or two before the election, by the Radical leaders; the papers are now being prepared and disseminated ready to be brought out according to programme. Certificates and charges and monstrous discoveries and lies are to be inliminated, with a view to frighten the timid and affect the wavering. This is so, and we tell you of it that you may be forewarned.

Let none of these things move you. Our cause is just, our prospect bright, Radicals are turning to us every day; we know this is so; therefore, let every man do his duty and the State is redeemed.

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUD AND FALSEHOOD.

The Radical leaders here are leaving nothing undone that can in any way mislead and deceive the people of all parties and induce them to obstain from voting, or to vote the Radical ticket. All sorts of frauds will be practiced in reference to tickets, many of them have been detected already. Let every man therefore, examine carefully his ticket before he deposits it in the ballot box.

But the people may especially anticipate that astounding representations will be made and scattered broad cast over the State in hand bills and otherwise as to Ku Klux crimes and outrages, and as to developements made through Holden's military movement. Watch this matter. It is already intimated that this will be done. The people are aware of the lawless armed force of Holden organized expressly to force the election his way or defeat it altogether, and a man, or set of men, who can perpetrate so wicked a crime as this, is capable of making any fraudulent and false effort or representation to accomplish a purpose. The men who have perpetrated unheard of crimes without number, on the people of the State, intend to yield their grip on power and the purse and sword, only after the people have wrenched them from them at the ballot box. Let them do this at once and send them where they will never be heard of again or mentioned except in scorn and derision.

HOLDEN AND THE "RING."

There is no man, cognizant of the facts, but believes Gov. Holden to be a guilty participant in the ill gotten gains of the "Ring."

That the "Ring" plundered the State is proven; that Holden appointed the men, Swepson, Jones, Littlefield and Sloan to responsible positions is proven, also.

That he connived at the peculations and frauds practiced by his appointees can be proven by John T. Deweese, one of the villains who "turned States evidence."

That Gov. Holden refused to interpose any check whatever to prevent the corruptions going on; and that he never attempted to detect and punish a single abuse committed by the men who were thus stealing the people's money, is a patent fact uncontradicted by any record in the State.

It cannot be shown by any message or other official act, that he has ever lifted his voice or made any effort, or advised the Legislature or the courts to take any steps to hamper the rogues or protect the finances of the State. We have no doubt that he fears, were he to set on foot any inquiry into the frauds and corruptions of Littlefield and the "Ring," it would end in his own exposure and confusion.

Though he knows Littlefield to be a perjured swindler, he continues him as President of the Western N. C. Railroad.

Though Dr. Sloan stands self confessed, on oath, of having taken a bribe of $20,000 simply to withdraw his lobby opposition to a bill before the Legislature appropriating $2,000,000 to a Railroad, still he continues him in a position in which he has the handling of millions of the people's money, with no security for its proper use.

With these facts before the people, who but Sam Phillips, Scott, Kirk and Kidnapper Dick, will dare to say the Governor has a clean record in regard to the frauds and corruptions that have been practiced in the State.

For the Sentinel.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.:—I write you a hasty note to inform you that the Conservative prospect of success in every county west of the Blue Ridge is bright and promises certain success to all the Conservative candidates for the Legislature, for Congress and Attorney General. Mr. Phillips did his cause no good, indeed, it was manifest he felt condemned all the time and had no confidence in the party whose candidate he is. The Radicals see the handwriting on the wall and fear and tremble.—Holden's war down there is playing the mischief with them here; the people of all parties detest and denounce it, except a few Radicals, and they are almost every one afraid to say they sustain him.

The Radicals in this section resort to all sorts of shifts and subterfuges to deceive and mislead the people. They will tell any sort of a tale to serve a purpose in one locality, and for the same end contradict it in another. They tell a thousand stories about what you all say and do in the East and no doubt they will then make false representations about us in the West. So look out. We detect frauds in the tickets prepared, almost daily. Let everybody look out for frauds and falsehoods. If the people East of the Ridge will do as well as we intend to do, we will carry the State by twenty thousand majority. Keep the ball a moving. BUNCOMBE.

July 20th, 1870.

Our correspondent is not mistaken in his apprehensions as to falsehood and misrepresentation. The Standard of this morning says, that James M. Merrimon and Wilson Allen, Conservative candidates in the West took bold and open ground in opposition to the homestead provision of the Constitution. This, we are authorized to say, by one who knows and is responsible, is false as to James M. Merrimon, and he believes it is false as to Mr. Allen. The Standard gives no authority for its statement and we take it the statement is entirely without foundation and is made to have effect East of the Ridge, and so lately before the election as that the false statement cannot be corrected. We say the statement is made without a shadow of foundation as to one of the gentlemen and we believe so as to the other.

A "RING" OPERATION.

The Radical Legislature passed acts called railroad acts, but in fact, acts for the benefit of the "Ring," amounting to over $26,000,000 and provided a special tax to pay the interest on these bonds, and last year the people paid of this "special tax" money into the Treasury about $417,000.—After this money to pay interest on the "special tax" bonds had been collected, and after the "Ring" had sold all the bonds they could, first cutting off the coupons first due, the Legislature passed an act repudiating the "special tax" bonds, but just before they did this, the "Ring" presented "special tax bond coupons" due to the amount of $111,123. The "Ring" men got every dollar of this money and the State lost every dollar of it. That was part of the money wrung from the people last year to pass into the pockets of Andrew Jackson Jones, Littlefield, Swepson & Co. Let the people consider of this as another of the many Radical robberies, and say if they are willing to keep the same set of plunderers in office.

THE WAY IT WORKS!

Chief Justice Pearson, a few days since issued nineteen writs of habeas corpus for citizens of Caswell in custody of Kirk.—One of them was for a gentleman who undertook to serve a similar writ from Judge Mitchell of the Superior Court, which was torn up by Kirk and the gentleman having left Yanceyville on his way to Danville, was pursued, arrested and carried back and put in close custody.

A dispatch, we learn, was yesterday received by counsel here, from Mr. George Williamson of Caswell, saying, that he took the writs issued by Judge Pearson to Kirk's camp on yesterday to serve them but was driven from Yanceyville, under threats of being fired into.

So we go, yet Holden says he is sustained by the Chief Justice, and has a great respect for the laws and the civil authorities!

Out upon such impudence and hypocrisy!

THE HABEAS CORPUS CASE.

RALEIGH, July 27, 1870.

In the matter of Adolphus G. Moore, ex parte.

The counsel for the prisoner move:

1. For an attachment or rule to show cause against the Governor for not making a sufficient return to the writ of habeas corpus.

2. If this writ of attachment against the Governor is not proper, then for a similar writ or rule against Col. George W. Kirk.

3. That the Marshal of the Supreme Court be directed to proceed further in the execution of the writ directed to him to bring the body of the prisoner before your honor.

On this morning, the 28th inst., the Chief Justice delivered his answer in writing, as follows:

Ex Parte Moore.

The first motion is refused.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has no power under the habeas corpus act to order the arrest of the Governor of the State.

The second motion is refused.

It has been adjudicated by me, that Col. Kirk had a justifiable excuse, his orders having been avowed by the Governor.

The third motion is refused.

It would be an idle form to require the Marshal to go to the camp of Col. Kirk and make a demand, as the Governor has taken upon himself the responsibility of declining to produce the body of the petitioner. In Story's case 10 Johnson, 238, Chancellor Kent on the return of a writ of habeas corpus directed to General Lewis, held the return, "The party is not in my custody" to be insufficient, it should have been, "the party is not in my custody or under my control." The custody of a subordinate is the custody of the superior.

The petitioner, if it will serve his purpose of applying to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the U. S. for a writ of habeas corpus, as suggested by his counsel, may take the fact to be, that the Marshal proceeded to the camp of Col. Kirk, and informed him of the writ, and that Col. Kirk relied on his orders and refused to deliver the body of the petitioner.

R. M. PEARSON,
Ch. J. S. C.

It will be remembered that the writ which was issued by the Chief Justice, after the Governor had made his return to the writ of habeas corpus was as follows:

To David A. Wicker, Marshal of the Supreme Court:—

You are hereby commanded in the name of the State of North Carolina, forthwith to bring Adolphus G. Moore, wherever to be found, before me, Richmond M. Pearson, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, in the City of Raleigh. Herein fail not. Have therein this writ and make due return.

RICHMOND M. PEARSON,
Chief Justice Superior Court.

Raleigh, July 26th, 1870.

Instructions.—You will wait upon His Excellency, the Governor, exhibit to him this writ, and a copy of the opinion in "Moore's case" and make return to me.

R. M. PEARSON,
C. J. S. C.

This writ was issued after the Chief Justice had delivered his opinion declaring that by the constitution, the Governor had no right to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus and that it was not suspended, and the writ above named commanded the Marshal to bring the body of Moore before him, but to first serve it on the Governor.

It will be seen that the Governor refuses to obey this writ, and now the Chief Justice says he is powerless to execute the law of the land, as the Governor has taken the responsibility not to do it.

What a state of things! We submit these papers to the people of the State, and the country. But what becomes of the lying pretence of the Governor and his organ, that he and the Chief Justice are acting in accord; and that he was but carrying out the opinion of the Judge. If this be so there is something between them, more than has hitherto met the public eye.

For the Sentinel.

ADDRESS TO GOVERNOR HOLDEN.

DEAR GOVERNOR:—Permit an humble citizen, one who neither asks or expects favors at your hands, to speak a few words of soberness and truth to you for our common good, and for the good of the people of North Carolina, without regard to race, color or previous condition.

The arbitrary exercise of powers not granted you, either by the Constitution or the laws of North Carolina, in suspending the writ of habeas corpus, when there is neither invasion, insurrection or resistance to the execution of the law, has created surprise and contempt in the minds of every statesman and patriot in this broad land.

It is rumored in different parts of the country that you contemplate sending a part of your military force to Johnston county; as a citizen of the county; in the name of people of the county, I enter my protest against it. There is no necessity for it. The people of Johnston county stand prominent as a law-loving and law abiding people; they will compare favorably with any community either in or out of the State as good and loyal citizens. The records of the county sustain me in what I assert of the people of my county. Not only the records of the county certify to the truth of what I assert, but every peace officer of the county will endorse, without hesitation or mental reservation its truth. Then I appeal to you, Governor, as commander-in-chief of the militia of the State, to know, what necessity; under what authority either of the Constitution or the laws of North Carolina do you propose to disturb the peace and tax the people of Johnston county; there is no invasion, there is no insurrection, there is no resistance to the execution of the law, civil or military, and he who asserts the contrary is either wilfully ignorant, or he is guilty of an infamous foul-mouth falsehood; a base slanderer of the people of Johnston county.

If the object of the move is to get up strife between the citizens of the county and the militia, the instigator of the wicked purpose will be wofully disappointed; human nature is about the same, with here and there, like angels' visits, an exception, and I regret to say, Governor, you are one of the unfortunate exceptions. If they come they will be treated courteously, kindly and as gentlemen they will reciprocate the kindness.

If the object is to make political capital, to deter the voters of Johnston county to keep them from the polls on the 4th day of August 1870, it will be a signal failure; the soldiers themselves are freemen, entitled to the right of suffrage and in common with their fellow citizens they will not forget that, if you in the exercise of an arbitrary power not guaranteed you either by the Constitution nor laws of North Carolina, can proscribe one voter, you have the same right to proscribe them whenever it may subserve your wicked purpose.—A free press, free speech and a free ballot is guaranteed to every citizen of the State by the constitution and laws. They are the palladium of our liberties and he who denies, or attempts to deny the free exercise of the one or the other is a traitor and a coward. Governor, if you are not insane, if you are not given over to hardness of heart and reprobacy of mind that you may believe a lie, the conclusion with every sane man in the State is, that you are bent upon mischief, that you thirst for the blood of those whose sworn duty it is yours to protect.

Let us take a bird's eye view of the condition of the State as represented by you, through the spectacles of common sense.—To bolster up your case, for argument sake, I will admit the truth of your bill of indictment as charged against the people of North Carolina, and we will go farther; let us admit that every county and every citizen in the counties are in a state of open rebellion, I ask who is responsible?

It is one of the universal laws of nature that like causes produce like effects. Taking this view of the subject, I ask you, Governor, in all candor to say whether the deplorable condition of affairs complained of by you in your bill of indictment against the people of the State in the shape of a proclamation, ever existed in North Carolina before. How many of your predecessors ever complained, officially or unofficially of the deplorable condition of affairs as represented by you? Did Worth, Vance, Ellis, or any other Governor of the good old North State ever malign her citizens as you have? No, no, Governor. Then I repeat the enquiry, where does the fault lie? who is responsible for the turmoil and excitement that pervades North Carolina from the sea shore to the mountain top? You, Governor, are the responsible person, the sin was at your own door, and that it proceeds from four causes combined, or, taking a more humane view of the subject, it proceeds from one or more of them, viz: incapacity, insanity, credulity, or a depravity of heart, soul, mind and body, that would make satan blush and perdition weep.

Yours respectfully,
J. T. LEACH.

From the Boston Post.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The new emeute in North Carolina—the most prolific of the new born States in the bitter fruits of Reconstruction—is a Radical affair in every sense of the word. The Radical Governor, Holden, who, from the very beginning of Reconstruction, has been one of the most radical disturbers of order and law and the regular administration of justice, has now carried his radical audacity so far as to defy the civil courts; to proclaim martial law; to suspend the writ of habeas corpus; to place in command of a body of disorganizers, which he calls the State militia, a certain Col. Kirk, distinguished for the manipulation of similar movements in Tennessee; to order the said Colonel to arrest several respectable individuals, known to be of conservative character and tendencies, and to charge them, not with any overt acts, civil or moral, but with suspicion merely of being connected with that invisible but ever available Radical bugbear, the Ku Klux Klan; and finally, to answer the writ of the Chief Justice of the State for a habeas corpus, by the characteristic Radical reply that that sort of thing was "played out." The reconstructed carpet baggers and usurpers of authority in North Carolina were not to be insulted by a suggestion even of constitutional liberty, or the once regular but now "played out" forms of law. And all this as merely a preliminary movement of the approaching political campaign. The Congressional candidates were speaking in the Court House when the place was surrounded by Col. Kirk's redoubtable army, and arrests made of several prominent citizens, including the sheriff of the county, made without form of law and without allegation of offence and upon no imaginable ground, in fact, other than that of Radical expediency and the assurance of Mr Sumner that Reconstruction must be carried out at all hazards and by all means, and that Reconstruction means nothing more nor less than a guarantee of a republican form of government—in other words, a government formed and held and operated by and for the exclusive benefit of Radical Republicans.

In accordance with this species of republican government, at last accounts the Court House had been seized and placed under guard, and a military commission—Col. Kirk himself and his subordinates constituting the court—was in session to try, or more strictly speaking, to condemn the arrested citizens. The whole transaction is but another example of the legitimate results of that egregious botch work of legislation called Reconstruction—which was designed and is being executed in North and South Carolina and other half formed States, in the interests of Radicalism, by placing the reins of government and the means of official corruption in the hands of ignorant and mercenary carpetbaggers and supple tools of party.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are entitled to fice and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to each G'rough life, or for a series of years to payhold.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

REGISTER! REGISTER!!

There is but little over a week to the day of election. Every voter in Wake county must register or he cannot vote. Don't neglect it a day, but register, and then go quietly to the polls and cast your vote against the corruptions and oppressions; the military humbugs and high taxations that are grinding you to the earth and eating up the products of your labor.

MECHANICS No. 2.—This fine looking Fire company, dressed in their new uniform, are out on parade as we go to press.

The uniform is quite handsome, consisting of Orange colored shirt with blue shield and wristband, black pants, white belt trimmed with red, and white leather cap tipped with yellow.

We have to apologize for not mentioning yesterday, the intended turn-out—we forgot it.

MORE ARRESTS.—Assistant U. S. Marshal, Bosher, on a warrant from U. S. Commissioner, Shaffer, arrested, yesterday, in Harnett county, Burt Hodge, Wm. Avery and John L. Byrd, charged with whipping one Jordan Weaver, of Johnston county, for his political opinion. All the parties are white, and the arrests were made by Bosher alone, without a posse of U. S. troops, a significant fact that those who have been lying about resistance to law in North Carolina, would do well to note.

The examination was to come off this afternoon, but had not done so before we went to press. We have learned nothing in regard to the particulars of the case.

SOMETHING NEW AND SOMETHING OLD.—We saw at the auction and commission store of W. H. Jones & Co., to-day, something new, and something old.

The something new was a fully opened boll of cotton, gathered from the stalk, yesterday, by Maj. Bagley, from a four acre lot he has planted in the Southeastern part of the city. This is certainly the "first of the season" in the way of open cotton bolls.

The something old was a sample of apple brandy, put up in the year 1795, and is consequently seventy five years old. There are a few bottles there for sale but we didn't learn the price per bottle. We got a distant smell at the mouth of one of the bottles, as a special favor, the established price being 25 cents a smack.

Well, that is right old brandy. We know a number of gentlemen in this city, who would not have kept it half as long.

THE WEATHER is very warm to-day as may be seen by reference to the range of the thermometer, and it has not been a favorable day for catching locals.

The Standard caught a new Local, yesterday, Mr. Churchill, but his local column didn't have any poetry in it this morning. We don't know whether he writes poetry or not.

By the way, the Localizing of that paper seems to be of very uncertain tenure, there having been some four or five who have tried the place in the last year. But we must speak low on this subject, as the predecessor of the present Local has put on the stood, as Major of Clarke's negro militia, and may not relish any allusions to localizing, so we'll stop.

The Life Sustaining Principle.

The vital and the muscular systems are entirely distinct from each other. A man may have the brawn of a Hercules, but if he is deficient in vital energy he will not wear as well, or last as long or be as healthy and happy while he does last, as the man of ordinary, or even slender build, who possesses a larger share of this animating principle. One of the greatest recommendations of that pure vegetable invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is that it increases the vital force of the system. No medicine can double the volume of a man's muscle, or thicken and vulcanize his thews and sinews; but Hostetter's Bitters has an effect much more important. It has promotes sweet functional vigor. It reinforces the life-power, of which bone and sinew and muscle are merely the instruments, holding the same relation to it that machinery does to steam. Let the slight and apparently fragile take heart, they may have more stamina, though far less physical strength, than the broad shouldered athletes they regard with envy. To restore, to sustain, to increase this stamina principal which, when in full supply, is the source of health and the best guarantee of longevity, is a special property of the famous restorative. It is not only a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fevers, consumption, &c., and a preventive of all diseases of a malarious character, but the best of all medicines for strengthening the constitution and awakening the powers of nature from whatever cause they may have become lethargic.

THE CONTRAST—LOOK.

The cost of the State government for the year beginning 30th of September, 1866, and ending 30th September, 1867, was $364,679.54. That was the year before Holden & Co. came into office. The cost of the State government for the year beginning 30th of September, A. D., 1868, and ending September 30th, 1869, was $746,860.40.—This was the first year of Radical rule.—Difference in cost $382,180.46. This vast sum was embezzled and went into the pockets of Radicals. Add to this the cost of the Legislature for 1869-70, $250,000 and we have the enormous sum of $632,180.46. Add to this the sum paid out and lost to the "Ring" for "special tax" coupons, say $111,123, and you have the still greater sum of $743,303.46. O, does not the heart sicken at such details of fraud and villainy? Can it be that the people will vote to keep such plunderers in power longer? We trust not. Let the people remember too, that although these crimes are confessed and are undeniable, that not a single Radical has raised his voice or pen in opposition to, or denunciation of these crimes and frauds that have no parallel in the history of civilization. Is this not remarkable? It argues a combination of plunderers of the public, at once appalling and alarming. Let the people wake up and save themselves.

[From the Wilmington Journal.]

SAMPSON COUNTY KU KLUX.

In a recent article in the Raleigh Standard, recounting a number of alleged outrages, says:

"And a colored man, who was on the streets of Raleigh yesterday, was recently most inhumanly scourged in the county of Sampson for his political opinion."

Now for the facts. This negro is known in Sampson as William Scott, and has the appearance of being a half Indian. He said in different conversations that he came from Duplin, Northampton and Wake. He was a total stranger in Sampson. On Monday morning he remarked to a negro that it would not be long before there would not be a chicken left to crow in Sampson, as he intended to have Kirk and his men there. That night Scott was whipped, as described in the following affidavit, by negroes who did not know him, for no offence, but as they swear, in accordance with the orders of a secret League. These parties were all Radicals.

Scott left immediately, without making complaint, having passed through Clinton, the county seat, on the day Brig. Gen. Dockery spoke, on his way to the railroad.

A colored man, Samuel Crumpler, afterwards told some gentlemen that he thought it was his duty to tell them of the plot to get Kirk's men into the county, by representing that Scott had been Ku Kluxed, when in fact it had all been made up by the negroes themselves. A State's warrant was immediately issued against the parties to the affidavit and three others. The latter, however, escaped and have not since been heard from. It may be well to state, as indicative of the good feeling between the races in Sampson, and the respect shown to the law, that these parties were arrested by one white man and several negroes, and guarded and taken to jail by the latter.

When brought before the Magistrate the parties made affidavits to the facts therein contained, and by the time they get the Governor to send "Kirk's men" to Sampson, we suppose the other three will be captured and be lodged in jail, ready to be taken to Yanceyville for military trial.

This is a true and simple statement of the Standard's Sampson Ku Klux horror, and shows the real foundation of much of the evidence upon which Governor Holden orders his military to imprison the leading citizens of the State. Can it be true that Kirk has a number of trained East Tennessee emissaries to make work for him?

The affidavit is as follows:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, }
SAMPSON COUNTY. }

A copy of the evidence before J. E. Barden, J. P., in Clinton.

Wash Howard being sworn, testifies: That Virgil Crumpler, colored, is the highest officer of a society or secret organization, and known amongst us as General. He, Virgil Crumpler, swore such persons as he wanted as members. The oath is this, or as nearly this as I can remember: "To keep all things secret, and if a member tells anything, he is to be killed." Virgil Crumpler swore the members to do any and everything he should order them to do through Thomas Butler, the Captain. To kill a man or men, to burn houses or anything that he, Virgil Crumpler, should order. The members to this secret organization is, Virgil Crumpler, General; Thos. Butler, Captain; Wash Howard, Smith Herring, Marsh Howard, Lewis Howard, Lou Owens, Charley Crumpler, Wrin Herring, Thad Newman, Jim Cooper, Green Underwood, Gabe Royal, all colored. I have been a member of this secret organization about three weeks. Virgil Crumpler administered the oath to me, holding up my right hand. The meetings of this organization were held at Virgil Crumpler's house, on Matthew Faison's land, in Sampson county, State of North Carolina. Meetings were held some two or three times a week. On Monday night, the 18th of July, 1870, I, Wash Howard, with Thad Newman, Jim Cooper, Marsh Howard and Lewis Howard, all colored, went to the house of Tony White, colored, in the county of Sampson, and State of North Carolina, and took therefrom a colored man who called himself Scott A. Litcher, and carried him about a quarter of a mile from Tony White's house, where March Howard whipped him, the said Scott, striking him some eight or ten licks with a little whip. Lewis Howard, colored, was present with a shot gun; his face concealed and hidden with a covering of cloth. After Scott was whipped a gun was fired off, pretended to be fired at said Scott. Think that Lewis Howard fired the gun. Do not know what Scott was whipped for; thought it was orders from Virgil Crumpler, the General. Several of the members of this society go armed, with shot guns and pistols.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mebegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. We honestly think two boxes of Mebegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Revenue to-day $365,000.

In reply to the question whether a cigar manufacturer who manufactures by contract for another cigar manufacturer can use the brand, caution label, &c., of the last named manufacturer, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that the actual manufacturer must use his own brands and labels. He cannot use upon cigars which he manufactures the brands and labels of another manufacturer.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 27.—The "Cambria" arrived at 3:30 The "Dauntless" arrived at 4 o'clock.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, July 27.—The Journal officiel has an article this morning on the pretended treaty recently published in the London Times, saying for its object the acquisition of Luxemburg and Belgium by France, our condition of France not opposing the union of the States of South Germany with the North German Confederation. The article says that after the treaty of Prague in 1866 several conferences were held at Berlin between Count Von Bismarck and the French Ambassador on the subject of a project of alliance. Some of the ideas set forth in the Times were then advanced, but the French Government never had any knowledge of the project described, and as far as the propositions which were discussed at the interview were mentioned, the Emperor rejected them. The Journal adds: "It can escape the notice of no one that this publication on the part of the London Times is a designed merely to influence public opinion in England."

All the organs represent that the treaty was not seriously proposed by France, but rather as an attempt to test Bismarck.

The Emperor has given orders to treat prisoners of war with the utmost humanity.

A circular says, "The papers are only forbidden to mention the movements of troops or propositions for active operations. They have a right to speak of the events of the war in the light of accomplished facts."

The journals add, as a matter of duty, a reminder that persons that the penal code punishes with death any person giving intelligence of movements of the army to the enemy.

They also remind non-political papers that they are not entitled to print anything relating to the war.

Another circular from M Olliver calls upon the Bishops to offer public prayers to place France, her Chief and the noble infant, who goes to battle at such a tender age, under the protection of Him who holds in his hands the fate of battles and the destinies of the people. At a time when our heroic army is on the march let us ask God to bless our own arms and to grant that a glorious and durable peace may quickly follow the griefs and sacrifices of war.

BERLIN, July 27.—The "Correspondence" today publishes the text of the treaty offered by the French Emperor to Bismarck. In its comments the "Correspondence" says that the Emperor waived all opposition to German unification provided Prussia would aid the French acquisition of Luxemburg and the reduction of Belgium. Minutes of the proposed treaty in Benedetti's autograph are preserved in the war office at Berlin. Before the war of 1866, between Prussia and Austria, Napoleon had offered aid to Prussia with an army of 300,000 men, with which to attack Austria as an equivalent of France having the territory on the left bank of the Rhine.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

Napoleon's fortifiable force on the frontier numbers eight hundred thousand men. Prussia can't fight except at desperate odds, on the frontier. A teeming country enables the Emperor to dispense with a commissariat.

The weather is splendid for fighting.

Prussia replies to the overtures of peace from France through Russia, that it is too late.

Emperor's capacity is not absolute. She will be governed by Napoleon's instructions, and it is forbidden to promulgate other laws than those now pending.

It is regarded certain that the Emperor intends closing on the Prussians between Thionville and Weissenbourg, and throwing McMahon's army across the Rhine. McMahon's army consists of three corps, commanded by Failly, Donay and McMahon. Eight thousand marines under General de Vassorgue will accompany the Baltic fleet.

LONDON, July 29.—The Bank rate is advanced to 5 per cent.

BERLIN, July 28.—Prussia in accepting the Paris declaration also exempts from seizure the enemies' merchantmen not carrying contraband of war.

PARIS, July 28.—The "Moniteur" says, that the movements of the French armies point to an immediate and decisive action.

Oliver invokes the prayers of the clergy for the safety of the Emperor and the young Prince.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 28.—The Russian force in Poland has been increased to 200,000 including the imperial regiments of guards.

PAIN KILLER
PERRY DAVIS'
1840 1870

This Valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands. Directions accompany each bottle.

GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1863 and 1868, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid (1 dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

UNPREGEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work,

Places it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE with which all are familiar.

Do use for does, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (as is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and by the general public.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.
